Hash Gossip

*Today is the second week for the collection of 2nd quarter subs in exchange for 2 free beers. Next week no free beers and no cards, see the on-cash.

You, bloody tigers elected an Expatriate MD of an Industry to collect subs, do you think he is so free to come after you every week. He has given you 2 weeks to settle, so be disciplined and get rewarded.

*Jaya the Black German, the next millionaire in the making has paid his subs for the whole year.

*Albert Moh, the peh-moh turned orr-moh has returned to the fold- PH3, after paying his subs.

*For the information of all tigers, yours truly have found out that our chapter PH3 has been registered with the Malaysian Hash Council, thus we are a member of the MHC. It happened just before Mahathir/PH3/GM and Frog during their era in the Committee. So, now we are qualified to bid for Malaysian Nash Hash.

There is also no yearly subscription payable to MHC, that means we have the life-membership.

*The first project is being undertaken by the VGMI is a trip to a Brewery in KL. Most likely it will be a bus trip for which we have to pay, some beers on the bus we have to pay and a souvenir t-shirt we have to pay. On the way back, stop-over at Ipoh's Big Sister's den for a massage before we return to Penang.

In the meantime create your mood and interest into this expedition. Participation is limited to the number of seats in the bus. First come first registered.

Borobodur Interhash 2012, 25-27 May 2012. Sure to win the bid in Kuching Interhash. Who have pledged with US$20 to support the bid? Six from Penang Hash.

Pan Asia & Pan-Indo Hash Bandung, 11-13/11/11, $100 Airasia flies to Bandung. A volcano run overlooking the melting crate. Who r going? Kali, Geligan, 1beer, Seng2,

THE BURST: Run no. 2421, by Soon Gee "Geeko", at Bee Juice. 34 tigers plus 2 guests: Hock Keong, Ah Long.

The GM announced the next weeks run at VOT by Billy. On-Sex added that there are 7 tigers have already registered for the Danok Red-Dress-Run, what the others waiting for?

The Hare and his co-hare, Ah Chye, left at 5.30 pm to lay papers, letting Barry to announce the run.

At 6.08 the tigers started to walk towards Botanical Gardens, the paper lead to the right down the little valley where a little meandering stream flows. The stream is so narrow even a harriet on her tight shorts could jump over, but the trick here is, both sides of the stream are soft mudd covered by the grass. Many tigers could not make it but short-landed one leg into the stream. Big laugh all over.

From here the paper went up into the bushes and kept to right skirting thru thick flora and fauna, roots, vines, thorns anything you name are found along the way. A short on up, crossed a ridge and down to a gully of thick vegetation, up again overlooking the Chinese cemetery and the old Bonsai runsite. Still skirting for another 20 minutes then up to reach the path to the Mt. Olivia. From here, the same old track which all tigers are familiar with.

On left, down to the gully of small stream, up 50 feet and down on ropes to reach Waterlily pond. From here, road run to the beer wagen.

Rudru was back in 65 minutes, followed by Mini-sausage and Shark.

That was a medium to long run and the first half of the run was a real thick jungle where one never likes to explore, especially the yours truly.

The food was good at least $6/head. The hare was put on ice for giving the dirty jungle run but with exception for the good food. He generously threw-in 2 crates of beer for the tiger friends to sing for him "Happy birthday to Geeko"

Rudru was bestowed as a datuk grand father. One from his daughter and another from his son. He was so happy and marry with one crate of beer thrown-in. Cheers to Datuk Rudru the Grand-father.

The night was long till 11pm to finish all the 3 crates of goodwill beers.

Yours Truly had found out from the ROS that PH3 have not submitted the annual reports for the last two years, which means for the year 2007 and 2008. For the year 2009 submission will be handled by the current committee. The ROS is closing one eye for us to wake-up or buck-up before he opens his eye to issue a show-cause letter "why PH3 should not be de-registered?"

Yours truly would do the needy to handle the submission for the years 2007 and 2008 provided the committee of those years submit to me the following documents:

1. Audited statement of accounts for the two years,
2. Minutes of the preceding year's AGM, where the elections of new Committee members are included with proposers and seconders.
3. Attendance list during the AGM,
4. Notice to the members of the AGM.

So, Rudy and KNLT, The On-sex is waiting for your documents.

The sooner you submit the sooner the job get done, but still before the eye opens.

If the eye opens sooner, both of you have to see him with Pocket-full. You have been Warned.
