THE BURST: Run no. 2422, by Billy Anchor Charlie Tiger at Indian Temple, VOT.

24 tigers plus 2 guests: Gila Hoe and Alex-Gidget.

All tigers were gathered at the compound of the Indian Temple. The name of this Hindu God is in Tamil meaning "guide me the way temple" How this name came about? During the Colonial time the Indian laborers who worked on the hills laying pipes for water works, found themselves lost in the thick jungle umpteen times. They created this temple so as to pray to the Lord to guide them back safely after the day's work in the jungle.

About the run:

As today's turn-out was so poor GM has nothing much to announce except telling next week's run site. The hare said one bar and one check, follow Ph3 paper. The tigers started walking along the tarred road towards the pump house. Half way the paper led the way up left. This track was most probably founded and used by the Indian laborers 100 years ago. This track leads all the way to a T-junction, to the left water pipe leads to the lake, on the right the track leads to the Pump house. The paper before reaching this T-junction veered up right thru thick virgin vegetation and down a eerie valley of rocks, then up and down again towards another rocky valley. Thank you, Billy, for not letting the tigers to Cross this second valley instead, 20 steps more we were out onto the main track which we passed before.

Boon Wah with VGM power booster finished as first runner back in 55 minutes followed by Rudru and Ah Bai.

All tigers were back before darkness. Billy ordered food from SK for 40 pax, we had less men more share. Definitely good food.

Does Management know their Staff?

On walking into the factory, Shark the Managing Director of his company noticed a young guy leaning against the wall, doing nothing. He approached the young man and calmly said to him, "How much do you earn?"

The young man was quite amazed that he was asked such a personal question, he replied, none the less, "I earn $ 2000.00 a month, Sir. Why?"

Without answering, Shark took out his wallet and removed $6000.00 cash and gave it to the young man and said, "Around here I pay people for working, not for standing around looking pretty!

Here is your 3 months salary, now GET OUT and don't come back".

The young man turned around and was quickly out of sight.

Noticing a few onlookers, the MD said in a very upset manner, "And that applies to everybody in this company".

He approached one of the onlookers and asked him, "Who's the young man I just fired?"

To which an amazing reply came - "He was the pizza delivery guy , Sir!"
