PH3 website is ready.

Our PH3 website is ready and the weekly runs will be updated regularly. Weekly newsletters are posted on the site if you have missed to read any. As we are paying RM400.00/year to keep our address on the internet, we better get it alive and updated. Our webmaster is non other then Minisausage. Not like the last two years it was dead and stinking and the money was paid for nothing.

Email your hash friends around the world to check on our website. It is open to the world hashers to see what we are doing in this part of the world.

PH3 Membership count:

We have 41 members at this quarter, fully paid-up, which means to say, your turn to set a turn appears every 9 months. We are short of 11 members for us to set our run once a year. If you don't like setting a run every 9 months, recruit more members-lah.

Why was he born so beautiful

The Burst on Orr Lee's run at TAR college:24-5-10.

We had one guest from PH4- Ian Tan and 3 guests from FTAC who are very close friends of Orr Lee.

The tigers were less than 30. VGM2 announced no run next week as the hare is in the hospital having grease pumped to his knees. He requested for anyone to move his run to next week. All the hares listed in the Receding hareline are stuck with their dates, they refused to budge from their date except our flexible Ah Chye who takes care those who needs help or favor, volunteered to shift his run to next week.

From this, yours truly have noted that once your name appear in the receding hareline it cannot be changed because you have already booked your flight. Thus, leaving no choice for the on-sex to shift the one on-line below the last one on the receding hareline.

The hare announced one check and the paper starts beside his recycling factory. The paper lead us along the trail which we were familiar and often its our home trail for many previous runs. Half way before reaching the Charly hash highway the paper went right, skirting all the way for the next 40 minutes thru the untroden virgin country. It was alright to go thru this area in a group, If I were to be alone I would have turned back or go up to the hash highway, it was so thick and eerie. Finally we arrived at a valley and instead of following the valley home the fu...king hare took us up another hill. Thank God that was a short on-up then down to meet the beginning papers to return home for the beers.

Food from the hare: the last few runs by the Chinamen gave their favorite dish, the black sauce pork spare-parts. The Indian tigers are already black so the black sauce pork is not a favorite. Indian tigers love to eat whitish and yellowish dishes. Blackish on whitish spread is their favorite. There was no circle because there were too many guests and the VGM2 said not enough beers to go round.
ON ON to next week.
