Run 2430. by Ronnie Pendek at Dildo's Play Ground

Red Dress Run at Danok: 5/6/10

By Geopark HHH, SP, Kedah. Wearing fancy red dress originally planned to run or walk around Danok up-coming city, checking all the pubs and massage houses etc. But last minute the organizers chicken-out for being arrested by the police on the emergence of another red shirts group in the south. They announced no red dress but normal hash gear and the run went through the back of stinking houses and across rubber estates. After having heard of the change of plan yours truly refused to run thru the rubber as we in Penang had enough of it. I was there with my red dress on

Some enjoyed the run, many enjoyed the good food and ample Tiger beers.

Our Jaya charged the GM of Goepark H3 on ice for changing the RDR to a normal run. It was more of a MIC run with many Indian hash hymns and their presence out-numbered the MCA.

1st. World Heritage Hash Run in Malacca. 15 to 17 April 2011.

2nd. World Heritage Hash Run in Penang in 2013, Can PH3 bid for it? Will all tigers come forward to render your arms to help to organize??

The Burst on Ah Chye take care's run at Charly stinky market :31-5-10.

30 tigers came for the run but no guest turned-up.

GM thanked Ah Chye for pushing his run forward and taking over Gurdial's run slot.

(This happened for the simple reason that once the date and the hare name appears on the Receding Hareline, it is final. The On-sex will not reshuffle unless two Hares swap their run dates by themselves and inform the on-sex.)

Ah Chye announced that his run is long to short to everybody's laughter.

(We only found out after the run that it's a short run for fast runners and long run for slow walkers.)

The run started on the hash highway, then immediately on-up, passed the cemetery and the paper continued on the ridge for some distance until the paper lead us down. Overlooking the pepper estate the paper went skirting along the way towards Bonsai. The terrain was not smooth but terrible to describe in short. (If anyone have taken note that the last few runs set by the Chinamen follows a new trend of setting runs "skirting thru untrodden and unfriendly hill slopes and valleys).

Just before reaching the Indian temple on a hill-top, the paper went up to the top of Mt.Olivia.

From here paper went down towards hash highway and back to the run site.

Ah Chye provided Char mee hoon.

Orr Lee was iced for setting his good run and Ah Chye got the whole bucket of ice water for his good run and cheap food.
