A Word from the GM

After a 2am run its always good to have a bit shorterer run but making the GM going twice than it really too short!

It was good to see Dildo and Goh overcoming their fear by going out strait away again and they wanted to collect their rewards off course! Pocky knew what was coming but: "We forgive but never forget what we forgive"!

Next week's run after a long absence: Charlie's Stinky Market lets see if Playboy can pull of an original run!

Still tickets for sale for the PI anniversary Ball RM 55 so talk to the GM.

At the time of this newsletter going to press still no burst from Ah Lam on his defense he send out 4 emails to the GM but all non Hash related subjects.... I'm afraid his computer is infected with tons of viruses or the operator forgot to read the manual...

Run 01-10-2007 The Juice Hare: Ricky Yeh Bah.

After an eventful run at Chin Farm last week we had this week a more familiar terrain were most of the senior PH3 hashers have trembled around for years already.

It makes it a bit boring when there is no chance that some of our hashers ventures in unknown directions to be rescued after a good time together in the jungle exploring hole's and do all other kind of bullshit.

Actually it is Lam who should write this burst but the GM asked me to be his back-up in case he loves the icing so much that he will be iced twice this week for not delivering a burst in the second consecutive week. We have given him a reminder on Saturday and told him that he could even write it in Chinese as most of our guys can't read or write so never mind as long as you put some words to paper to keep the gang informed what happens during the run.

Back to our run at waterfall; it was this week a bit of a deception to do a run of less than 30 minutes after we have had excellent runs in the past weeks.

Up at the black pipe venturing to the right down the hill and then on-up to the summit, returning just before the top to end up at the same black pipe and out we were.

Excuses from the hare that it was raining too much and that they had to go through this ordeal was later not accepted. Even seasoned hashers make mistakes by laying down-paper on a distance of 10 feet from the up-paper were fast runners spot papers on a distance of 50 feet they ran down already before seeing some pieces of paper going a bit further up.

This was actually the only interesting part of the evening not to mention the small quarrel our GM had with a guest who was happily enjoying the low price of the beer wagon for disturbing the circle.

Good run after all, though a bit short but this will be made up for in other runs.

Statistics will be provided later but I think it was a run worth half a bottle of beer as with the weather conditions taken into account we didn't burn any calories.

Mini Sausage.
