To me SK Chew is a very good run setter, A word "MEDIUM" from him announced at the pre-run circle, I thought easily will take me 1 hour and 30 minutes fuck I only spent 45 minutes I should have keep the torch light and at the same time I still can afford to walk all the way down you know why..? not that I have improved it's because on the way up I tried very hard to keep up with Hock Keong (Keong Keong) and Black Lee it was a big mistake they are too good for me at the moment, they can run like mountain pig running up or down.

Anyway, is a simple run paper all the way from the starting point and I think most probably the hare set the RUN short could be affected from the past few weeks' experiences that to look for SOS rescue team again. "Tau Kau Boi Toi Chua" in Hokkien (follow paper from the start till the end) always mentioned by TT Yeoh at the runsite, on the way up we pass through 3 water falls and we met a dead dog lying just beside our path, I look at the way it die it could be accidentally knocked and killed by the front runners based on my experience in watching Forensic Science movies that tell, Eh....guys next time don't go too fast be more observant take care of our small friends..... Ha.... ha..... GM also mentioned at the circle during hare on ice he could have cooked the dog soup for us.

Down at the runsite, GM and Bob call me for an assignment; they said "can you write a burst" to my understanding at the time was "can you ride a bus?????" I reply why not? And I was curious why he asked that? When I asked further (I only realized Fuck I make another mistake again I shouldn't said YES in the first place,) they replied "you write about today's run based on your own words". I hope I can make you all understand what I wrote with my little knowledge in English. Finally, at least I finished my assignment and I am happy man now cause my next assignment it could be after 2 years already ya..... cheerssss..... is good to have many members. On On!!! JY Khor
