

WORD FROM THE GM.

There is no improvement in Long Fellow's situation. Please say your prayers!

A message from Bala Taip-ing reach me over the weekend. His view on the Barisan:

“Barisan announced that its new National Symbol is the CONDOM because it accurately reflects the government stance. A CONDOM allows for inflation, halts production, Destroys the next Generation, Protects a bunch of pricks and gives you a sense of security while you are actually being Screwed.”

Everybody who wants to do the Ball Breaker in KL we need your names now to secure a spot!

Next weeks run Billy Howell. The runsite is Francis Corner which is in the Batu Ferringhi. Turn in opposite golden sands and find your way to the hill on your left hand site. New construction area no houses yet give it one more year and we have to move again!

Burst of Run 2311 Bala Gimbo at Dildo's Playground
Scribe: Shark

A "new" runsite, but into terrain already very well known by the regular bastards. Goes to show miracles never cease: despite all our efforts we had 4 guests. 2 from India plus one young Aussie and one old Pom. Most of them were virgin hashers.

Bala managed to find a new point to start the run but we managed to hit the regular trail pretty fast. A well-beaten path on up, a moderate climb and then on down to the backside of the GM watchtower. When we reached the foreign workers' Four Seasons accommodations, we thought we were home free. But Bala (by this point he must have been exhausted) got a miraculous second wind and found an on-up again!

This ritual would repeat itself several times. When we reached the fourth little on-up, the young Aussie bloke managed to catch up with me and – like Lan Chow Ah Keat – was challenging the jungle bare-chested.

We had time to have a bit of a chat and he told me he is on a trip around the world with the goal to spend some time in Eastern Europe to sample the pussy there. Good on ya, mate!

By this time we ran into Khoo Boon Wah who was doing the run in reverse for some stupid reason. When we reached the Hash Highway, we spotted some more people doing the reverse hiding behind trees (afraid to get a cold ass, I guess).

The on-down finished in a foreign workers' camp with tons of chickens running around freely but no paper. I directed the Aussie guy since he couldn't find his way out. His sense of direction was hopeless – this promises much fun for the rest of his trip!

OK, Bala, good run, a bit short but you made up for it with the best curry puffs I've had in a long time!

Run stats: steps 5435; 3.9 km; 195Kcal (less than 1 beer)
